FAQs

In the run up to putting a tour on sale we often get asked lots of questions relating to the shows and ticket sales. We've put together this handy guide to help you navigate your way through the process. We are working really hard behind the scenes to try and do everything we can to make sure that tickets end up in the hands of genuine fans.

How much are the "face value" tickets?

London tickets are £80 and £50, elsewhere they are £75 and £45. All tickets are subject to a maximum 10 percent booking fee and a transaction charge, per order (to cover Post and Packing).

So where should I buy my "face value" tickets from?

All official ticket agent websites will be listed on tour advertising and at EdSheeran.com

How many tickets can I buy?

Fans can purchase up to four tickets per event.

What are the entry requirements?

To gain access to the concert you are required to bring your tickets, booking confirmation and credit card (or a photo or photocopy of it) plus a valid form of photo ID.

What are the age restrictions?

All venue age restrictions are clearly displayed on the sales pages on the ticket agent websites.

Are cameras allowed?

Professional cameras, video and recording equipment are strictly forbidden. Personal use cameras and smart-phone cameras are fine.

When will we receive our tickets?

There are no eTickets or "print-at-home" tickets. There will be physical printed tickets sent out in the weeks prior to the show. You will not receive your tickets until the spring of 2018 at the earliest.

I can't go any more and need to sell on my ticket. What do I do?

Please go to our official resale partner – details available from edsheeran.com

How early should we turn up?

Please check venue websites for door opening times and do allow yourself plenty of time to get in before the start of the show.
