31. If as a result of the access requirements of the accessible Ticket Holder they require an essential companion to sit with them, then they may request an additional Ticket at no extra cost for the essential companion. Subject to paragraphs 32 to 344 below, where an essential companion Ticket has been requested they will be issued a complimentary companion seat next to the accessible seat Ticket.
32. If a person holding an accessible seat Ticket is found to not have a disability or impairment specified in the Accessible Ticketing Policy, or is not an essential companion of such a person, then we reserve the right to either:

You will be notified at point of sale, by telephone, by email or in writing of the arrangements for collection (using the details provided at the time of ordering) if this becomes necessary.
43. If you are collecting your Ticket(s) from a Ticket Resolution Office, you must bring with you an acknowledgement of order sent by us to you, and the credit/debit card used by you to purchase the Ticket(s). You may also be required to present a form of photographic identification.

Each Ticket Purchaser must retain at least one (1) Ticket for their own personal use and may only transfer any remaining Ticket(s) to their Guest(s) for their personal use (provided always that the Guest is a person who is known to the Ticket Purchaser personally and who did not become known to the Ticket Purchaser through the sale, transfer or disposal of the Ticket), for no greater than the Original Sale Price and not for commercial gain. Any such transfer by the Ticket Purchaser of a Ticket to a Guest must be made strictly subject to these Conditions (and the Guest's acceptance thereof) which shall be binding upon the Guest in full as if the Guest was the Ticket Purchaser, save only that the Guest shall have no right to transfer the Ticket under this Condition.
45. Notwithstanding paragraph 44 of these Conditions, it is an essential condition of the issue of each Ticket and the right of admission to a Venue or Session that the Ticket must not be:

 - (vi) otherwise bundled with any other good(s) or service(s) (including as part of any hospitality or travel package, in each case without the prior express written authorisation of Glasgow 2026).

Any Tickets used for such purposes shall be void and non-refundable.

46. Except for the permitted transfer from the Ticket Purchaser to their Guest set out in paragraph 44 of these Conditions, a Ticket Purchaser may not purchase any Ticket as agent for any other person and neither a Ticket Purchaser nor any Guest may sell, offer for sale, auction by any means (whether alone or with other items), re-sell or transfer a Ticket without our prior written approval. The benefit conferred by a Ticket is personal to the Ticket Purchaser or Guest and is not otherwise assignable or transferable, except as expressly permitted by these Conditions.

47. If requested by or on behalf of Glasgow 2026, the Ticket Purchaser must provide details (including the names) of their Guest(s) and may be required to provide photographic proof of the identity of the Ticket Holder as a pre-condition to the exercise by the Ticket Holder of any rights accorded by the Ticket. The Ticket Holder must, upon request by or on behalf of Glasgow 2026, give a full explanation as to how, from whom (including full contact details) and from where their Ticket(s) have been obtained and at what price. If a Ticket Holder fails to provide a satisfactory explanation, we may, at our absolute discretion in each case, cancel the Ticket(s) immediately and the Ticket Holder may be refused admission to and/or ejected from the Venue without refund or compensation.
48. In order to prevent any unauthorised Ticket sales, the Ticket Purchaser hereby expressly agrees that:
 - (i) when we become aware of any person selling or offering, exposing or advertising to sell Tickets to a third party (including a retail shop or online shop) without our prior consent, we will be entitled to request such third party to disclose information regarding the Ticket and any personal information of the Ticket Holder who sold the Ticket, and the Ticket Holder will not raise any objection against Glasgow 2026 or the third party with regard to such disclosure; and/or
 - (ii) if we become aware of any Ticket being listed, offered or advertised for sale on any online service, including an online ticket resale service, an online auction, an online flea market or on social media or any other service, we will be entitled to (i) receive any information regarding the Ticket and any personal information of the Ticket Holder who listed, offered or advertised the Ticket for sale from the respective service provider; and (ii) make a request to the service provider (on the Ticket Holder's behalf) to take down the listed Ticket or remove the information regarding the Ticket, and the Ticket Holder will not raise any objection against Glasgow 2026 or the service provider with regard to such disclosure, takedown or removal.

Allocation of Seats

49. Glasgow 2026 will, at its sole discretion, determine the total number of Tickets made available for any Session and will designate the seats or spaces for viewing the Session to the Ticket Purchaser, based on the category of the Tickets purchased. The Ticket Purchaser is not permitted to specify specific seats or request changes to the seats or spaces once they have been designated.
50. Glasgow 2026 shall endeavour to allocate seats within each Ticket order adjacent to one another, wherever possible. The allocated seats may be on either side of the aisle or in front of/behind one another. Children under the age of sixteen (16) years will be seated next to an accompanying adult Ticket Holder.
51. If it is necessary for the operation of the Games, such as for the arrangement of the Venue, television camera and broadcasting purposes or to ensure safety, Glasgow 2026 reserves the right, at its discretion, to move a ticketed seat or space to a comparable or better location for any Session.

Cancellation and Changes to Session Details

52. Glasgow 2026 does not guarantee that the Session for which a Ticket is issued will take place at the date, time and Venue indicated on the Ticket and Glasgow 2026 may make alterations to the time, date and Venue of any Session in the event of unforeseen or other circumstances, including (without limitation), inclement weather, a Force Majeure Event, a Crisis, any safety and security concerns or decisions from any competent authority.
53. We will use reasonable efforts to communicate details of Session changes to Ticket Holders as soon as possible after becoming aware of the necessity for and the details of the change.
54. The Ticket Holder is responsible for confirming Session details prior to attending to ascertain whether any changes have been made.
55. If the date, time or Venue of a Session is altered pursuant to paragraph 52 of these Conditions, we will not be liable to the Ticket Holder for any direct or indirect costs, expenses or other losses (including travel or accommodation costs) resulting from such alteration, however the Ticket Holder may be entitled to a refund, in accordance with the Ticket Refund Terms, of a sum equal to the Original Sale Price paid by the Ticket Purchaser for each Ticket purchased or obtained in accordance with these Conditions.

Entry and viewing

56. Each Ticket is personalised with the identification of the Ticket Purchaser in order to validate the Ticket Holder's entry and use of the Venue and access to a Session.
57. In order to gain admission to a Venue and/or Session (as the case may be), the Ticket Holder will need to present a valid Ticket to an Authorised Person upon entry. If requested by an Authorised Person, the Ticket Holder must comply with a request to provide their identity and/or that they are authorised to possess the relevant Ticket(s) in accordance with these Conditions. We reserve the right to refuse access to the Ticket Holder if their identity on the Ticket cannot be verified.
58. Ticket Holders must keep their Ticket on their person at all times while attending the Session and must present their Tickets for inspection upon request by an Authorised Person. Failure to present a Ticket may result in the Ticket Holder being asked to leave or removed from the Venue.
59. Any person who enters the Venue or Session by using a Ticket obtained in breach of these Conditions will be asked to leave or be removed from the Venue or Session by an Authorised Officer without a refund or compensation and there may be instances where legal measures are taken by Glasgow 2026.
60. The Ticket Holder should ensure that they access and enter the Venue before the start of the Session, by considering the time required for travel to the Venue and for security inspections. If the Ticket Holder arrives after the commencement of the Session, there may be instances where the Ticket Holder will be required to wait for an appropriate break in the Session before being granted access. Late admission to a Session is not guaranteed. Ticket Holders will not be entitled to a refund if the Ticket Holder arrives late to the Venue due to reasons which are not directly attributable to Glasgow 2026, such as public transportation delays or reasons arising due to the Ticket Holder's own actions or omissions.
61. Glasgow 2026 may reserve the right to restrict or delay the entry of the Ticket Holder to the Venue due to operational reasons (such as where the previous Session runs behind schedule) and Glasgow 2026 will not be responsible for any inconvenience caused to the Ticket Holder due to such restriction or delay, and Tickets will not be exchanged or refunded in any such event.

Security Inspections and Surveillance
